

AUSTRALIAN BANK COINS

Getting to know our currency

5c

Coin: 5c

Cent value: 5 cents

Features: The echidna is an Australian monotreme [egg-laying mammal]

10c

Coin: 10c

Cent value: 10 cents

Features: The lyrebird is a ground-dwelling Australian bird with the amazing ability to mimic sounds from its environment

20c

Coin: 20c

Cent value: 20 cents

Features: The platypus is a semiaquatic monotreme [egg-laying mammal] unique to Australia

50c

Coin: 50c

Cent value: 50 cents

Features: The Commonwealth Coat of Arms features a kangaroo, an emu and a shield showing symbols of the Australian states

$1

Coin: $1

Cent value: 100 cents

Features: Kangaroos are the world's largest marsupial

$2

Coin: $2

Cent value: 200 cents

Features: The image represents an archetype of an Aboriginal tribal elder

Images of Australian coins reproduced by permission, © the Royal Australian Mint.
Designers: Stuart Devlin and [$2] Bertram Ainslie Roberts/Horst Hahne.